JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
Associated Texans Against Crime
Dallas, Texas
21-23 June 1988

President of Associated Texans Against Crime (ATAC), Tex Lezar, has invited you to address the organization at a breakfast, lunch or dinner sometime between 21-23 June. You are asked to give a 25-minute speech on a topic of your choice. However, the organization is particularly interested in drug trafficking and how it affects crime in the US as well as global issues. Depending on the time of day selected for your appearance, you could expect an audience of 250-300 business, professional, law enforcement, and victims' groups (usually minorities). The media would cover the event.

Since you have declined the invitation from the Southwest Legal Foundation's Symposium on Private Investments Abroad and will not be in Dallas in June, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, please sign the attached letter of regret.

Dear Tex:

I appreciated your letter inviting me to address the Associated Texans Against Crime in Dallas sometime between the 21st and 23rd of June. My plans have changed however, and I will not be in Dallas at that time after all. Unfortunately, this also means I cannot speak to the ATAC. But, I will be interested in hearing about the progress that you make with this anti-crime group. I know with you as president it will achieve worthy goals.

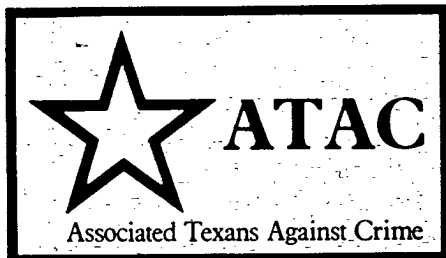

Best wishes and please give my regards to Merrie.

Sincerely yours,

Bill

The Honorable William H. Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

Recently I was named president of a state-wide public policy, anti-crime group called Associated Texans Against Crime (ATAC). Not only does ATAC have the grassroots support of concerned citizens throughout the state, but we also have hundreds of police chiefs, sheriffs and district attorneys who serve on our Advisory Board. The major project for this year is the ATAC Parole Commission whose goal will be to engage in a comprehensive study of the parole and prison system in Texas, and eventually affecting legislative reform for these state-level systems.

My top priority is to make ATAC the foremost criminal justice public policy organization. The crime problems in Texas, particularly in the prison and parole areas have gained the state much unfavorable national attention. ATAC's goal is to provide solutions to our problems and in order to achieve our goal, I am attempting to bring together many of our former colleagues to provide ATAC with the expertise of national programs and data.

The reason I am writing today is to request some time in your busy schedule to attend a function hosted by ATAC during your visit to Dallas this June. We could do either a breakfast, lunch or reception/dinner, on either June 21st, 22nd, or 23rd; we want to accommodate your schedule.

We will be in contact with your office, or Bill Baker's, in the next couple of weeks to see about schedule arrangements. Merrie and I look forward to seeing you February 20 in Washington.

Sincerely,

Tex Lezar
